AJAX enabled, web based document management

DbNetFile is a lightweight, fully encapsulated DHTML component which facilitates the presentation and maintenance of file system information within a browser environment.

- Sort, search, filter, upload, download, edit, view, and copy/move files and folders.
- Supports content searching with Microsoft Indexing Service.
- Tree style folder selection.
- Easy to use. Build a functional web-based interface to your file system in minutes.
- Rich UI.
- Easily implemented with as little as 3 lines of code.
- Fully encapsulated component. Integrates easily with any web page.
- Native versions for both ASP and ASP.NET.

For more information and to download an evaluation visit;

www.dbnetfile.com